

Message from Town Council

Monday January 9th 1967

Welcome to our humble town of Kalevia, mehhaanik!

Your work on the Vanalinn castle is important to us. Its restoration is paramount to the continued celebration of our history, and of course of the tourism krooni it will bring in.

So, don't be shy, and feel free to mail us without hesitation for anything you need.

I also want to get it out of the way right now. I expect you must already be in the know, god knows that bus driver cannot keep to his business. The stories surrounding the town, and of the strange occurrences at the Vanalinn castle. They are but mere fabrications, made by those who wish to see us seem more queer than we are and divert public funds away.

The people of this town may be reserved, and though we have our reasons for that, you will find yourself in most polite and humble company with them. If nothing else, we make sure our guests are treated right, unlike the Solhemans.

In short, enjoy the beauty of the Vanalinn grounds, and of our famous Kalevian hospitality and get the work done.

P.S. As a measure of further gratitude, please accept and make use of the basket of goodies we left for you.
